

Understanding and influencing Welsh legislation

19th October 2021

9.15	Welcome and introductions
9.30	Understanding Welsh legislation
	This session provides an overview of the Senedd's current legislative powers and explains the different types of Welsh legislation. The presentation will be followed by Q&A	Dr Sarah Nason, Senior Lecturer in Administrative Law and Jurisprudence, Bangor University
10.15	From public bill to Senedd Act
	This session will explain the legislative process for public bills, highlighting the different stages involved and identifying the points at which organisations might seek to influence a bill. The presentation will be followed by Q&A	Gareth Rogers, Clerk, Senedd Scrutiny Support Team
10.45	Break
11.00	Overlooked laws
	This session will highlight the significance and potential of secondary legislation, private and members' bills, including how organisations can propose or influence them.	Gareth Williams, Clerk, Legislation, Justice and Constitution Committee, Welsh Parliament
11.45	Break
12.00	Challenging Welsh laws
	This session will highlight the opportunities and limitations of challenging Welsh legislation including judicial review.	Dr Sarah Nason, Senior Lecturer in Administrative Law and Jurisprudence, Bangor University
12.30	In real life
	An opportunity to ask a Member of the Senedd about the legislative process.	A Senedd Member tbc
13.00	Close	